Monday Buddies!

△ Buddies Michael Keesler and Nick Martz tried to play it cool at the cookout, but Jarrod Phillips seemed to know the truth!

Track members David Batizi, Andrew Bigelow, and Justin Scheumann hammed it up at the cookout. (Bunny ears provided by Ryan Johnson!) ▽

Andrew Wappes worked on his etymology homework during Singing in the Rain rehearsals. Andrew played trombone in the pit band.

^ flight of fancy: April Hamilton added glitz and glamour to her cadet teaching project.

BARON SOUND BITE

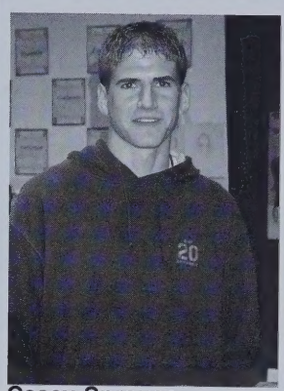
If I could replace Monday with another day, I'd choose...
"Friday! It'd be like a continuous weekend!"
-Jessica Lehtinen

1. Tammy Long gathered information on the post-Civil War era from her classmates' history project. Students in Ms. Tubergen's history class could then use the information for the test.
2. Smart seniors know how to stretch a trip to the drinking fountain so that it takes up, say, half the class. We are not sure if Natalie Wyss and Tandice Logan were taking a trip to the drinking fountain...but they were smart seniors, wink, wink.

day one

monday = "fun"day for these DHS students

Swedish exchange student Alicia Gustafsson threw up her hands in disgust with her computer project. Even computers are slower on Mondays!



Casey Sprouse prepared a plate for Mrs. Kirkton's Medieval Feast. English literature students helped themselves to soup, sandwiches, hot cider, and sweets.

Tonya Schwab and Angie Delozier put their academics on hold for a moment. Who studies on Monday, anyway?

< walk on the wild side:
Foxy Holly Berg looked forward to Halloween with her freshman brother, Reggie Berg, and fellow senior Matt Fike.

California dreaming: Brianne Lees kept her Monday look casual while pledging her allegiance to Berkeley College. >

^ frog legs...and head, and neck, etc... On a Monday in September, Jessica Boller watched in fascinated horror when John Wiley decided to taste-test his anatomy specimen. (Anatomy students dissect everything from frogs to cats to learn more about parts of the body.) When asked how his frog tasted, John stressed, "I didn't really eat it!"

v Rebekah Moorefield helped direct the decorating of the band hallway in preparation of the band's show at state finals.

go, fight, win?

Avid Purdue University fan "Señora" Helmkamp could often be found entertaining her classes with her takes on Saturday Night Live skits...en español, of course!

Just another... Manipulative Monday

DISSECTING

Alissa Spice, Rose Phillips, and Trina Likens worked as a team while dissecting a frog in science class. That poor frog!!

ACTING

* * * * *

Hillary Smith, Kristi Cain, Angie Mapes, and Andrew Bigelow acted as Spanish religious brothers for a play performed during Mrs. Helmkamp's Spanish IV class.

COUNTING

In January , Anita Buckmaster counted money while working at People's Federal Savings Bank in Waterloo. Anita participated in the I.C.E. Program.

COOKING

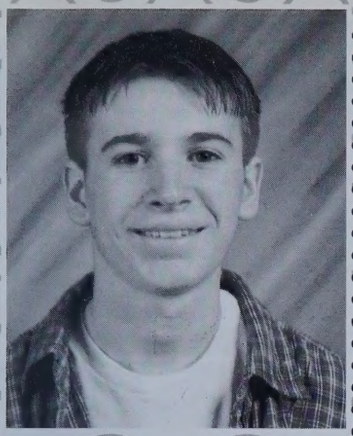
Carissa Ross and Jamie Peters made grilled cheese sandwiches for a medieval feast in Mrs. Kirkton's English class.

SCULPTING

< Working hard, or hardly working? Valerie Hardesty and Jeremiah Grawcock took a break from their pottery in Mrs. Nagel's 3-D art class.

ENAMELING

David Brand, Abby Bishop, Mikell Foster, and Daniel Campbell worked on a master-piece in Mrs. Nagel's art class with copper enameling.



BACK and FORTH

CHRIS COLLINS -9th NICK DELUCENAY - 11th

What is your favorite t.v. show on Mondays?

Seinfeld Junk Yard Wars

What's your favorite C.D.?

The ones I burn. Pink Floyd - "The Wall"

What's your favorite food?

pizza tuna noodle casserole

What do you do with your free time on Monday?

Sleep Spend time with my girlfriend, Kasey.

On a scale of 1-5(5 being hardest) how hard is it to wake up on Monday morning?

Steven Andrews and Tony Barrett enjoyed taking a break from symphonic band.

Katie Morrow and Amanda Ort had loads of fun dissecting frogs in science class.

Barons ready to start the week!

~~Monitoring Monday~~

Kristi Cain and Hillary Smith made a new friend during the Spanish IV field trip to Carlos O'Kelley's. He's number one!!!

Leslie Tyson and Chloe Savage looked forward to starting a week of learning to begin their last year of high school. Mondays can mean beginning a new unit or taking a test.

I'm not hungry!! John Wiley tried to feed Molly Potts in Mrs. Kirkton's class during the medieval feast in November. Yum yum!

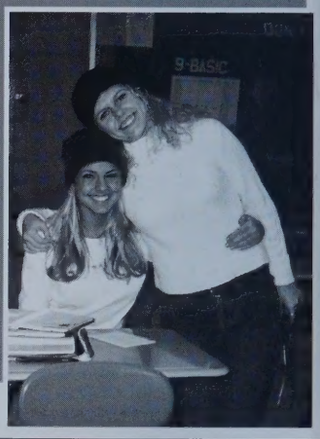
2001 never better

Managing Moments

Brandy Fifield explored her artistic abilities in Mrs. Nagel's art classroom. While in deep concentration, she created an original artwork on more than one given Monday.

On a Monday, Stacey Harp waited in line in the guidance office with a notebook and pencil ready to write down college information.

Snow hat day allowed Sarah Haworth and Megan Hawkins to show their school spirit and and to experience a wonderful day with a friend. In February they entered the chilly composition classroom with warm ears.



Star Picks

Brandon Ellert sustained his appetite with a hamburger while contemplating U.S. history class on a Monday.

Mondays are not always the most thrilling days of the week. Barons truly know the secret of how to go through the day while gaining their own sense of achievement.

Below: Nicholas West and Ana Paula Moser acted out a part of an adaptation of "Marcelino Pan y Vino." Nick represented a mayor and Ana Paula played the role of a mother searching for her son. Spanish IV students tested their years of study in November in Mrs. Helmkamps's classroom.

Above: Jennifer Michael designed a bumper sticker in April. She added creativity while applying history to the present in Mr. Ross's classroom.

Below: Jessica Fuller attended the pep band rehearsal in November after school. The band room was filled with fast paced rhythm.

Below: Proud to be a Hoosier, Amy Knapp definitely possessed a basketball spirit.

Left: While counting down the days to graduation, Dawn Prentice and Kristi Cain studied psychology during sixth hour in Mr. Rayle's classroom.

Below: Jessica Johnson completed an assignment outside of Mr. Comfort's room on a Monday in the fall of 2000. Jessica was relieved after finishing make-up work.

Sabrina Zimmerman and Alia Castillo completed a psychology worksheet. They were content in Mr. Rayle's classroom during sixth hour on an average Monday.

Monday Memories...

...Now and Then

It looked like it was free time for Elizabeth Corey and Nikki Barr in psychology. Did all of those psychological terms get to you, girls?

Just the facts

Favorite Monday memory:
After school Casey Wallace and I were running out to Ashlie Petcoff's car. Casey didn't know it, but her book bag was open and some "personal items" fell out. To make things worse, people saw her and saw what she dropped. It was hilarious.

Andrew Bigelow ran on the record-breaking team in the distance medley at the Northside and East Noble Relays.

Long jumper Paul Sunderland looked for a winning jump against East Noble.

ENJOYABLE SEASON

" ...a very enjoyable season...good mix of athletes, young and old and outspoken. The one thing that everyone had in common was that they all wanted to do their very best and everyone contributed to our success throughout the season. There were many personal bests...seemed to fall into place for the post season. ."

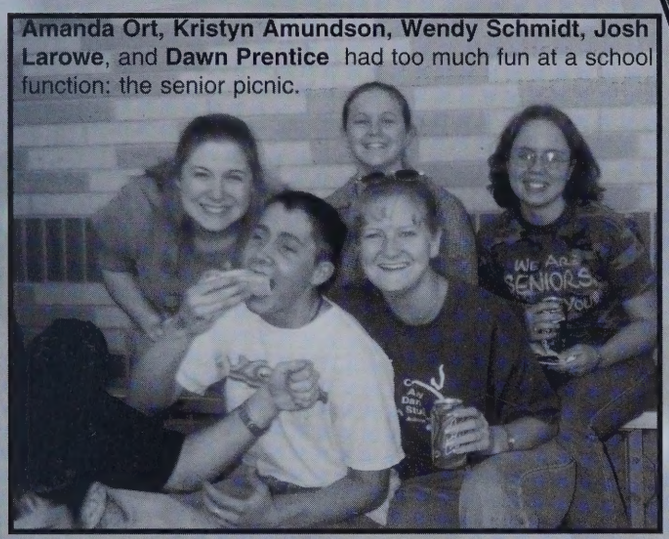
-Coach Perez

1.David Nan showed his form and energy as a freshman hurdler .

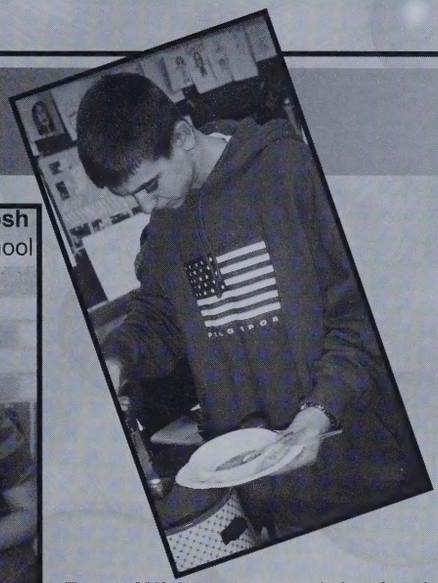
2. Peter Kempf hoped to be a state qualifer this year in the shot.

3. All-conference winners in the 3200 meters Josh Wolfe and Mark Stahl also broke the record at the sectional meet.

Playing with Pride



Amanda Ort, Kristyn Amundson, Wendy Schmidt, Josh Larowe, and Dawn Prentice had too much fun at a school function: the senior picnic.



Ryan Whipp savored the food at the medieval feast.

Angie Weimer waited patiently in the library. She enjoyed talking to Mrs. Hilkey.

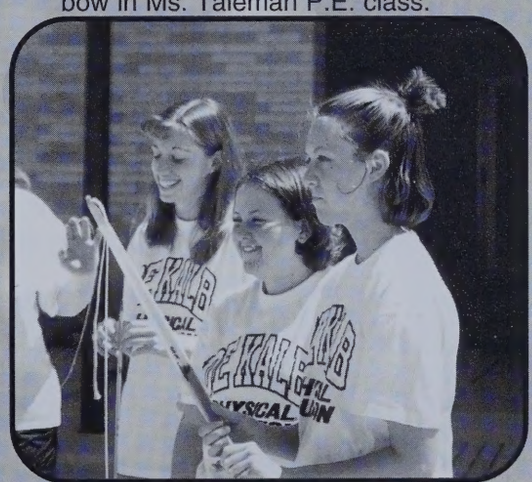
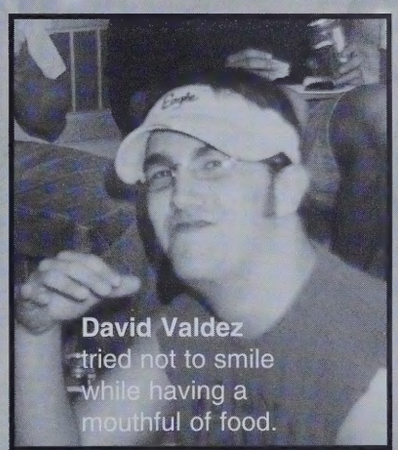
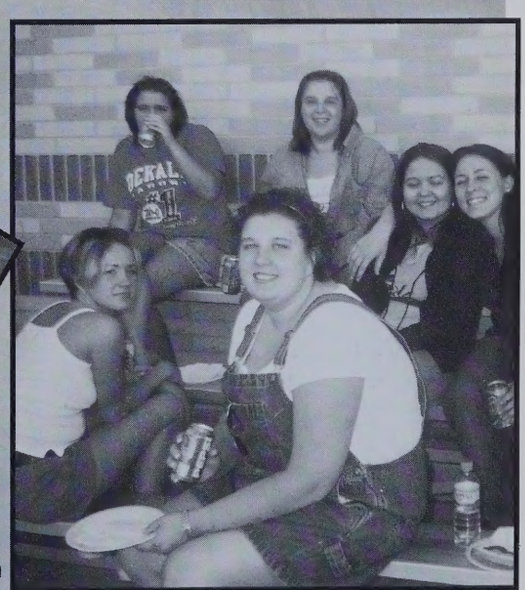
Kira Depew, Brianne Lees, and Jessica Kroehl learned to string a bow in Ms. Taleman P.E. class.





David Valdez tried not to smile while having a mouthful of food.

Sofia Karlsson and Shannon Buchs had fun at the senior cookout; they even showed similarities in styles.



Tandice Logan, Stephanie James, Erica Purdy, Rachel Spree, and Angela Fuleki enjoyed one of their last times together as seniors.

Megan Larowe listened in Ms. Taleman's P.E. class

Jackie Recker and Nate Kleeman raced to their next period class.

1 Courtney Klopfenstein, Cedric Essi and Amanda Parrish participated in French Club. Courtney was involved in the choir department, Cedric enjoyed being a foreign exchange student from Germany, and Amanda liked to wear her Spam shirt!

2 Ana Paula Moser was dressed as Mexican artist Frida Kahlo and Taylor Treesh as her husband muralist Diego Rivera for Mrs. Helmkamp's Spanish IV class. Spanish IV students picked a Mexican artist, wrote reports, and portrayed the artist.

3 Josh Larowe was proud showing off his truck during the annual car show held ever year during homecoming week. Judges awarded the best cars.

4 Tara Davis, Jayme Conroy, Kami Blickenstaff, and Amber Sorg relaxed before the bell rings for their next class.

5 Brandy Payton and Brittany Hoyer all "pj'd"during lunch, a homecoming week tradition. Brandy "cool, baby, cool" added shades to her outfit..

6 Tina Aronen, Melody Bolten, Jennifer Cook, Sara Hose, cosmetology students, seemed to have faith in each others' abilities. They leave school each day at lunch and travel to Kendallville. Students can be licensed shortly after graduating. On many Saturdays during the year, they work on the public.

Derek Steffe and Anthony Pepple, exhausted from learning, as Derek took a break from 7th hour geometry class with Mr.Fleming and Anthony from 3rd hour weightlifting with Mr.Cochran

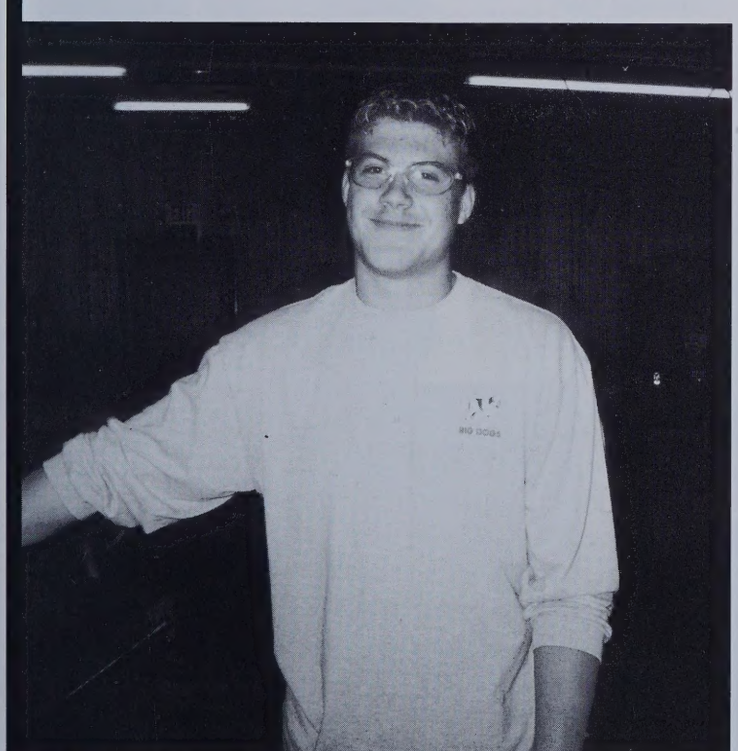
Tuesdays with barons

Sarah Wilhelm, 1st year Saber staffer, "showed off" her computer skills while working on her first layout.

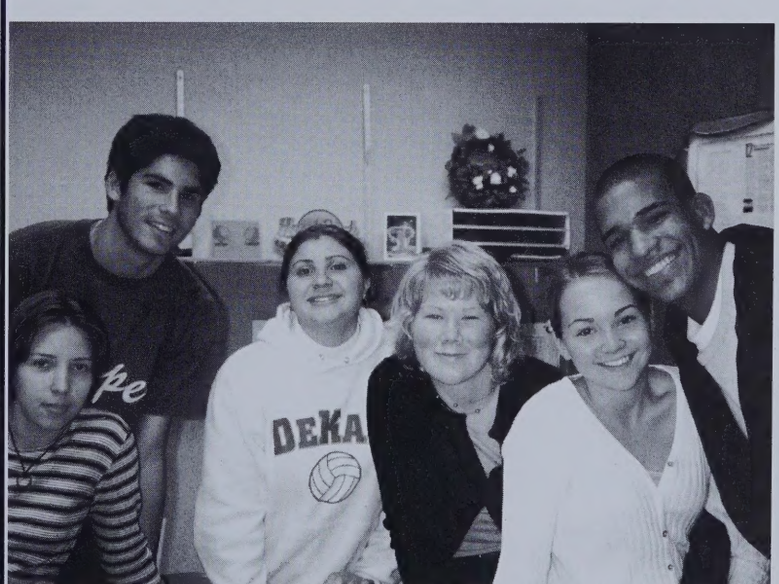
Kira Depew modeled her turtle pajamas on PJ Day during homecoming week, even going far enough to bring her stuffed animal. Kira stayed involved in concert choir. >

Karie Chatman sang a solo "Music of My Heart" during the DeKalb Fall Variety Show. She has been involved in the choir since 10th grade.

Erica Purdy and Beth Boger chomped down on those pretzel rewards before taking around passes from the main office, a responsibility of a student service worker.

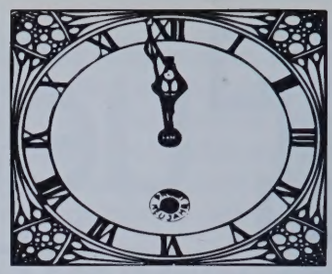


Justin Haverstock, working in Kendallville for the machine trades vocational class, learned hands-on the skills he needed to be successful. Justin was unable to wrestle because of a broken leg. He held a position on varsity since tenth grade.



Lina Braun, David Batizi, Ana Moser, Sofia Karlsson, Alicia Gustafsson, and Cedric Essi met in Mrs. Nichols' room where all of the foreign exchange students got together to do homework.

all in good "time" tuesday



GOOD TIMES

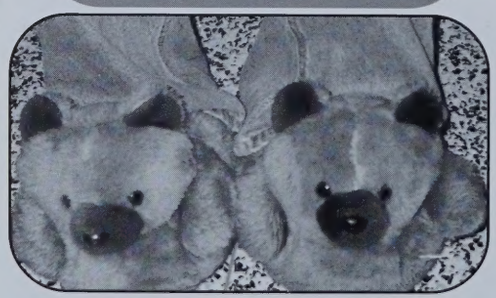
KayCee Pepple, Sarah Hissong, Shannon Davies, Jenna Roahrig, Amanda Pfister, and Elyse Rathburn seemed confident they had aced Ms.Taelman's "Pickle Ball" test, a game students feel relieves stress. 2

3 Tanita Taylor, Deidra Desouzaguedes, Tara Klenke attended a FCCLA meeting. Tanita (president), Diedra(vp) and Tara (treasurer) learn about cooking and social interacting.

Work Time

Travis Crosby > showed staff, Jeannie Timmerman and Emily Davis, how to work the machine he learned about in machine trades, a vocational class offered.

Lunch Time

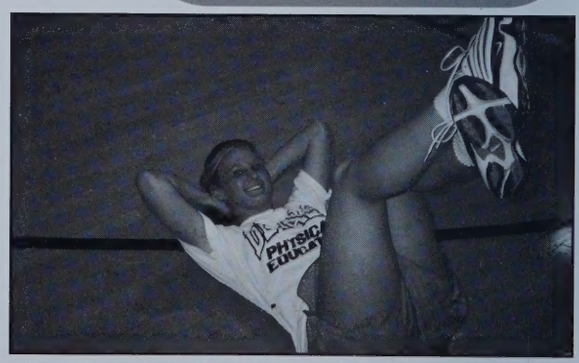


Melissa Bontempo's groovy slippers were a part of homecoming dress when students can show spirit by wearing slippers.

HANDS -ON

Tina Aronen and Melody Bolton enjoyed traveling to Kendallville each day after lunch for cosmetolgy class.

PLAY TIME



Jessica Leslie, in Ms. Taelman's gym class, did 25 crunches, ran two laps, and completed 7 pushups; she still had tons of energy!

LUNCH TIME

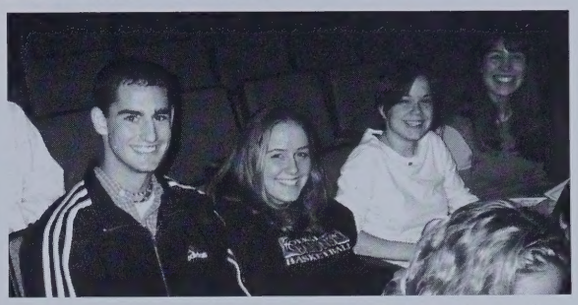
Activity Time



Adam Drew, Amy Reading, Jessica Davis, and Anne Hostetter met during homeroom to plan the Spanish Club Christmas caroling event. Adam, Amy, and Jessica also participated in vocal music.

SHOW TIME

Jamie Boller and Sarah Hissong worked well in Mrs. Nagel's art class on self-portraits. Sarah swam for the Barons, and Jamie enjoyed her academic English class.

Activity Time

Jennifer Moriarity and Nikki Barr enjoyed the homecoming activities and looked forward to the dance and game.

Lunch Time

Lunch time pals, Jessica Mihalec and Brandy Stahl, hoped their dress would help their class earn the spirit stick.

Test Time

Lyndsey Pritchett and Alicia Gustafsson studied for a 5th hour test. Lyndsey and Alicia, close friends, liked to spend as much time together as possible.

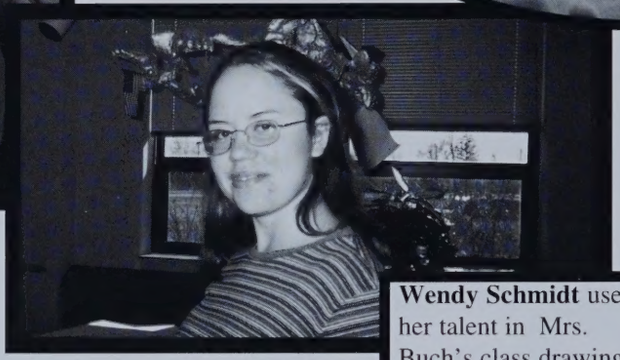
tuesday: get with what's goin' on Melissa Deloizer rested her skills during yearbook class in between creating pages.



Adam Arnold spent most of his day in auto mechanics. Adam enjoys fixing and selling cars.

Wendy Schmidt used her talent in Mrs. Buch's class drawing a popular still life..

Sarah Smith was so involved in her art work that she came down an extra period to finish it.

GIRLS BEST SEASON EVER

"The girls swim and dive team accomplished many things in its short history. Every year each swimmer and diver succeeded in attaining personal goals of season and personal bests. These PRs were accomplished through hard work and dedication on behalf of each member, the team, DHS, DeKalb Central School District, and the community."

-Coach Hamman

BOYS BEST SEASON EVER

The boys swim and dive team had a great season. This year's expectations were to improve each practice and meet. "All the swimmers worked very had in a difficult season sharing practice time with the girls team. No "home" pool to host any meets meant we got back late during the week." The team should "work hard, get stronger and never give up!"

-Coach O' Neal

Getting It Together on Tuesday

... collecting yourself, organization, planning, striving, perseverance, success...

Amanda Woebbeking, Casey Wallace, Brittany Reynolds, Jim Iddins, Stephanie Warner, Ashley Bates, Kate Franzman, Rachel Hall, Tanya Aeschliman showed their school spirit in Mrs. Heminger's English class on pajama day during Homecoming week.

Brent McHenry and Ryan Grate added some "yee-haw" to their school spirit together on cowboy and cowgirl day.

Katie Hoffmeyer and Laura Freed worked together to deliver passes for the office.

Lisa Borden and Loretta Watson were together on SADD t-shirt day.

Alissa Spice was a junior class represenative who sold candy to raise money for the prom.

Daniel > Campbell and Abby Thompson spent much time together.

Natalie Hamman and Andrew Wappes had school spirit; the Saber staff thought Andrew's shirt stood for Obnoxious Pinheaded DeKalb Hotties!

In art class Leslie Miller busied herself sculpting.

Ashley Bosell, a very good art student, spent time in the office.

SPRING * BREAK
Around 150 students returned on Tuesday from the band trip to Florida. The band competed in three contests and won all bringing home 12 trophies.
Job well done band and guard!

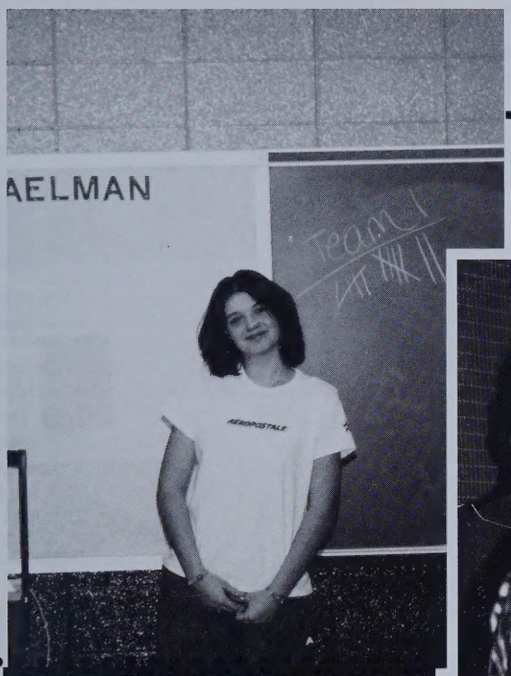
Janelle Slone showed her larger-than-life Kurt Cobain picture, done with oil pastels she completed in her 11th grade drawing and painting class.

Star soccer player Adam Drew signed to play with the University of Saint Francis in the presence of his new soccer coach, Adam's parents, and DeKalb's soccer coach, Jed Freels.

HEADS

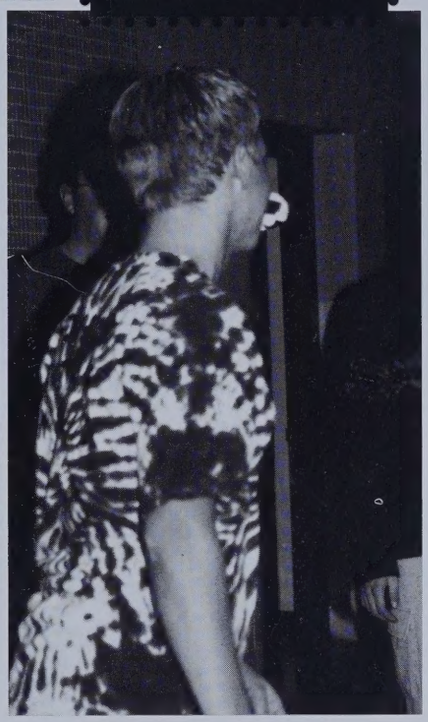
DEKALB

The latest hair styles found on heads of DeKalb students.



Jaclyn Rodecap demonstrated the classical hair down look, not only wearing it down but layered as well.

Adam Groscop's short blond hair was the stylish way for a guy, especially a soccer stud like him.



Terri Ruiz showed the classical "wear the hair down look" with a nice wave.

Guidance office worker Tanita Taylor showed the classical way to keep hair off of the neck.

An Adrienne Surfus unique "knob" style proved convenient during those windy marching band rehearsals.

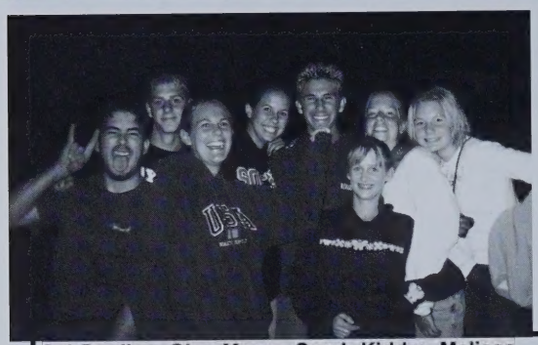
Amanda Ort and Rose Phillips exhibited the difference between hair down and hair pulled back.

Sara Huth had a colorful way of dying hair, some orange and the rest blonde and spiky.

Brandy Fifield went for the whole " ponytail wih purple butterflies" look--an excellent way to show the spring spirit.

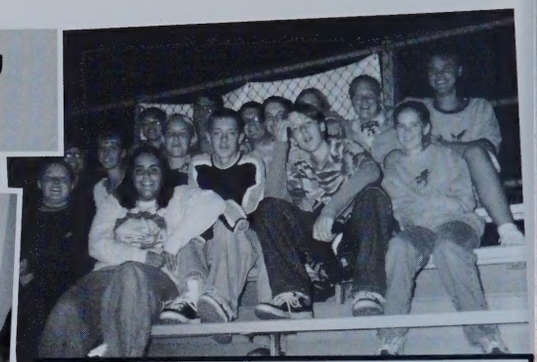
A Wednesday Song:

"Let Me See That Throng..."



Sal Sardina, Glen Myers, Sarah Kidder, Melissa Bruns, Joe Shepherd, Jill Polkow, Ivy Doehrman, and Megan Laggner went to the powder puff football game. Whether cheering for the juniors or the seniors, it was a great way to show school spirit.

Alec Marin, Christen Myers, Kate Ward, Emily Michael, Megan Morgan, Jessica Fuller, Dedra Ling, Sarah Kidder, Jenny Kobiela, Carli Allen, Mrs. Helmkamp, Jennifer Stein, Dan Gonzalez, and Kenton Miller had fun at this Spanish Club party at Megan's house. They watched Stuart Little in Spanish while trying to translate.

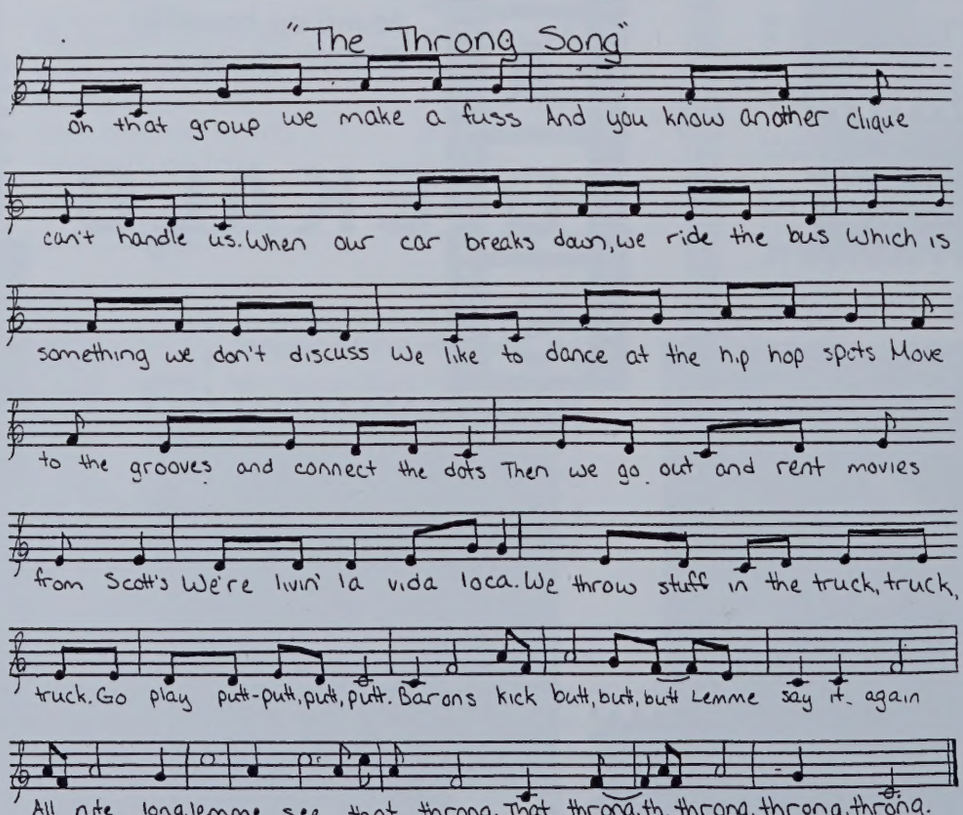


Cassandra Nichols, James Harr, Robert Ginder, Carli Allen, Darrel Brandenburg, Elizabeth Davis, Elizabeth Slane, Andrea Holiday, Bryan Buss, Zachary Ford, Hannah Ruse, Brittany Hoyer, and Jennifer Stein supported the senior girls at the powder puff game. They went to the bonfire after the game to play in the band or to cheer for their class with the infamous class cheer.

Jennifer Kobiela, Heather Groff, Kate Ward, Sarah Kidder, Carli Allen, and Emily Michael hung out with Mrs. Helmkamp while waiting for rides home from a club party. They listened to cadences from the Purdue drumline.

Jessica Davis, Anne Hostetter, Megan Meadors, Jessica Krehl, Alex Hall, Tonya Aeschliman, Stephen Hodges, Elisa Rathburn, Amy Reading, Andrea Stegeman, and Christen Myers had fun in Spanish class. Better get back to practicing conjugating verbs before Ms. Brown catches you!!

Kate Ward, Stacey Shaw, Jessica Oliver, and Sarah Kidder waited for the awards after a marching band competition. The band always did cheers before awards. It's a great way to get pumped up.



"The Throng Song"
Oh that group we make a fuss And you know another clique can't handle us. When our car breaks down, we ride the bus which is something we don't discuss We like to dance at the hip hop spots Move to the grooves and connect the dots Then we go out and rent movies from Scott's We're livin' la vida loca. We throw stuff in the truck, truck, truck. Go play putt-putt, putt, putt. Barons kick butt, butt, butt Lemme say it again
All nite long. lemme see that throng. That throng, th, throng, throng, throng.

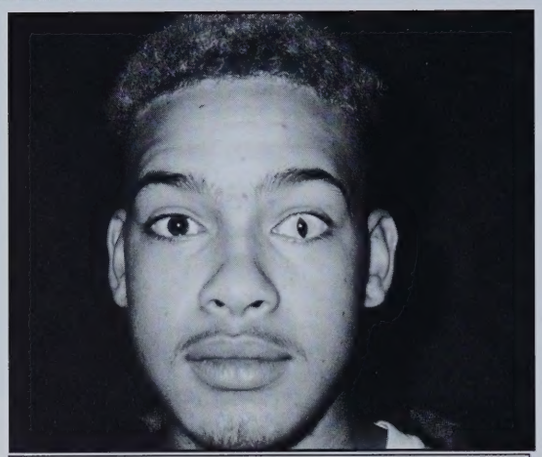
Wednesday

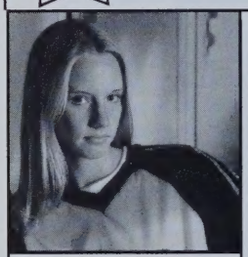
Wild and Weird



Tyler Armstrong finally went crazy. Meow meow meow...give him some catnip and a ball of yarn. What will be next for Tyler?

Joe Morgan and Andrew Wappes tried to fool us as they cheered on the senior crowd at the powder puff football game during homecoming week. In the end, the score tied at 12, the juniors accused the seniors of cheating; it was the juniors who really cheated, just for the record.

Star Picks



Sarah Linstromberg
"My favorite hero is Cobi Jones, because he is one fine athletic machine!"

The Lady Barons had a great season, 11-6 overall and of the 5 losses in regular season 3 were by 1 goal and 1 was by 2 goals. -Coach Zecca

This was the first season for JV, finishing 4-6-2. Our varsity had most team goals scored (61) and fewest allowed as a team (32). Great team effort!
- Coach Comfort

Jenny Vazquez
"... we wanted to be better than last year and grow.. We improved a lot, and this was our best season yet."

Sarah Lindstromberg
A senior team captain and forward, Sarah scored 50 pts. and had 18 assists, a record setting year. She was voted 2nd team 2nd district and 2nd team all-state by coaches from GSCA.

The single season goal leader with 17, Audra Miller, mixes it up with a Bruin player. Freshman Devin Gentis got a lesson in offensive play. Audra recieved 2nd team district and honorable mention all-state honors by coaches from the IGSCA.

BEST SEASON EVER

This year the DeKalb girls soccer team had its best season record ever. Their 11-6 record happened because of great team effort. The most team goals scored was 61 for the season. First team all- conference this year was Sarah Linstromberg, Audra Miller, and Melissa Bruns. Honorable Mention was given to Natalie Dannenberg and Steph Dewitt. All time score and assists went to Sarah Linstromberg and single season goal leader went to Audra Miller for 17 goals.

1. Caught up in a scoring attempt was Stephanie DeWitt, Sarah Linstromberg, and Leah Hose.
2. Jessica Mihalec, captain, "headed" the ball past her opponents. Good job on those fundamentals, Jessica.
3. On her way to a dribble, junior Jenny Vazquez made it through the defense. Jenny broke an arm during play that season.

caught in the act

waiting, wallets, and winning

1. Despite a football injury, Jarrod Phillips still kept his humor as he hobbled on crutches after knee surgery. He finished the football season with many team and conference honors.
2. Susan Farver played catch with her wallet during 4th hour lunch. Students found time to entertain themselves during lunch hour.
3. Victoria Mason, office student service workers, waited patiently for service.

Express Yourself!

Easy to see that the teachers and students at DeKalb High School have a great relationship. Mrs. Weber and Will Turner demonstrated this by walking arm and arm to class. Students will miss Mrs. Weber, who retired.

Connect-the-Dots

Barons work hard meeting the criteria for their classes.

Reggie Berg, Missy Hill, and Damian Disque had a great time doing group work in drivers ed class. Will they be ready to hit those roads?

Gregory Woodward utilized study hall to get his work done for other classes. Need some help there?

Jessica Lehtinen and Mr. Ross worked together to get Jessica's world history assignment done. Baron teachers are always open to help a student in need. That's what makes Dekalb such a great place to learn.

Ashley Grate and Devin Gentis answered questions about another exciting story for English 9 class. Study hall is a great time to catch up on those good reads!

Star Picks

Kaycee Pepple, 3rd base, made the throw to first for the out.

SOFTBALL

Dana Myers caught spring fever while preparing to play her flute parts for "Parade of the Tall Ships" and "Visions of the Flight" in Florida during spring break.

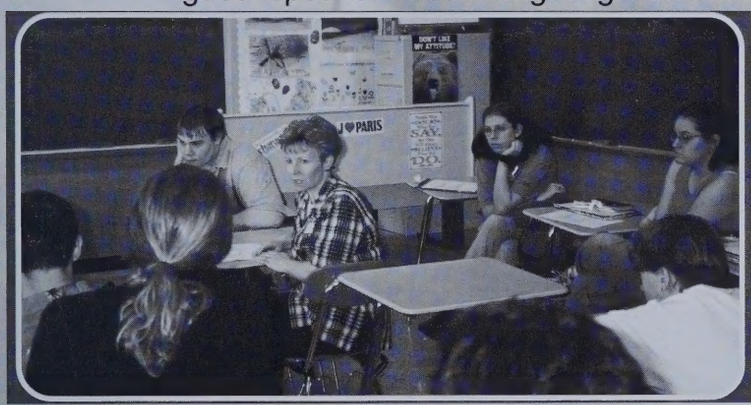
Melissa Bruns and Bethany Dilley participated in the 10th grade class trip. Students went to many different places including Kruse, Eaton, Rieke, and ACD Museum. Students listened to guest speakers about jobs,skills and training.

Kira Schowe, a freshman flutist, was ready to travel to warmer weather in March, ready to have a memorable spring break.

BARONS VENTURE OUT

Janel Buchanan, Lauren Grime, Elizabeth Grate, Laura Freed, Shannon Davies, and Erin Cherry went to the Heimach Center to study about health. They talked to a guest speaker about things high school students can do to prepare for health care.

Career Day



Sara Siebenaler,a supervisor for Kelly Services, visited Baronland on career day in April. She visited Mrs. Pfister's class to talk about the importance of a high school education and job skills.

Chris Brinkman inspected the ambulance at Wesley Health Care. He talked to guest speakers about why they enjoy their job so much.

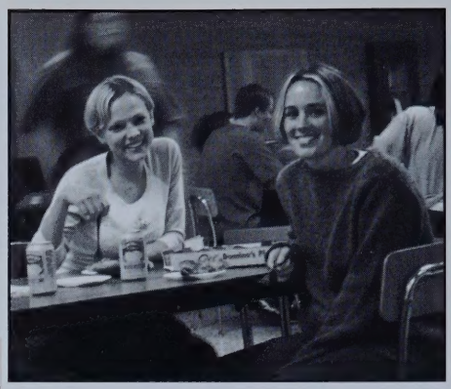
Laura Allison, Susan Michael, and Ryan Anningson made the transition from 8th grade to 9th with ease by keeping busy and making new friends in band.

Outside the band room, Reggie Berg, a freshman, was thrilled to travel to the All-American Music Festival. Reggie's goal is to become an expert not only at playing the trumpet, piano, and baritone but also any other instrument. Reggie was born to be a music prodigy.

Class of 2004

Thrilling Thursday

Barons in good spirits before the weekend

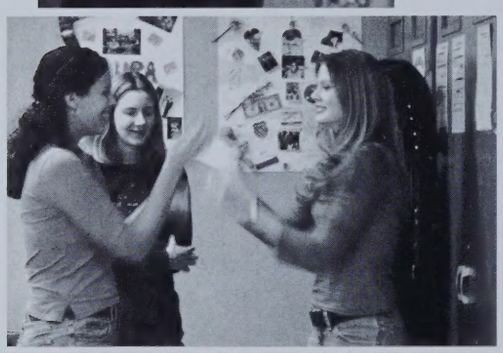


Enjoying the pizza on Domino Pizza Day, Jessica Mihalec and Tandice Logan munched. The girls decided to go in together and purchase a whole pizza rather than just one slice.

This busy senior, Jason "Keebs" Hargarten, took a few moments from Mr. Ross's seventh period government class to demonstrate that even though in school, he is still allowed to have a little fun.

caught in the act

I LOVE PIZZA



Jason Satkowiak caught some comfort on Mrs. Stock's couch with Maria Damstra and Scott Pankop. Though they were busy learning new vocabulary words in etymology, the seniors found time to talk about the upcoming weekend.

Seniors Megan Schenker and Heather Allen found time to have some fun remembering patty-cake games from their childhood. Michelle Roy hoped to learn a few tips from the girls.

Sophomores Stephanie Kern and Danielle Brandt took a few seconds from Mrs. Buchs' sixth period advanced two-dimensional art class. "The girls are supposed to be working on their still life drawing," said Mrs. Buchs.
Advanced two-dimensional art students did a variety of projects throughout the year such as a large, detailed still life, calligraphy, and batik (made using fabric).

Victoria Mason said that she has gotten smarter, more mature, and more open and outgoing throughout her high school years. "Mrs. Bolinger has been the biggest influence on me because she made me feel that everything is all right and she made me stay strong and keep my head up."

MY HIGH SCHOOL EXPERIENCE?

Sophomores Sabrina Roark, and Catherine Wallace worked off those < extra calories on the treadmill in their physical education class. Come on girls,get in shape for the week-

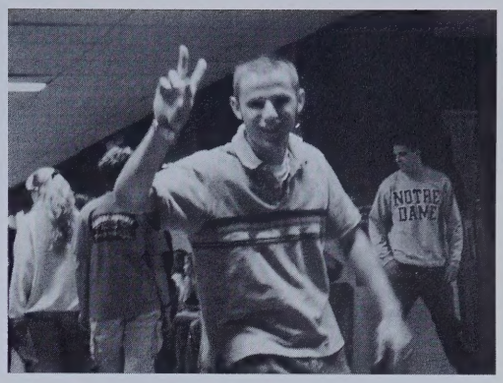
ISSUES

50% of high school students say that the possibility of teen pregnancy is one critical issue facing teens today.

30% of teens believe economic issues such as jobs and college concern teens.

Sara Smith, Carissa Ross, and Erin Farlow demonstrated their love for Papa John's pizza. On this "thrilling Thursday," the girls spend some time at the Amnesty International meeting in Ms. Tubergen's room. They spent the rest of their day at school, while everyone else had a half day. The girls wrote letters to dignitaries to show their support for people held in other countries held against their will.

Senior Scott Pankop showed his crazier side in the hallway during lunch. Scott participated in football for four years at DHS and enjoyed the challenge.



spare time TH

National Honor Society Inductions, the fair, after-school meetings, basketball games, sports practices, and looking forward to the weekend. So many things to do on Thursdays!

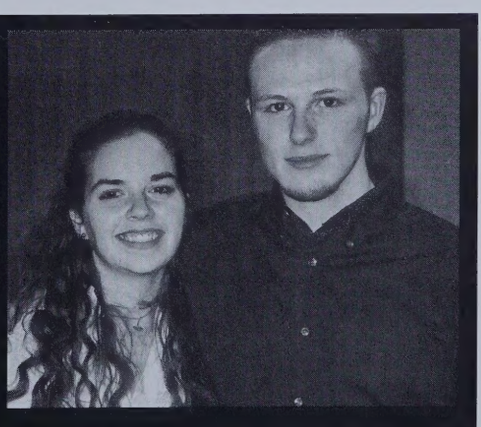
just FOR FUN

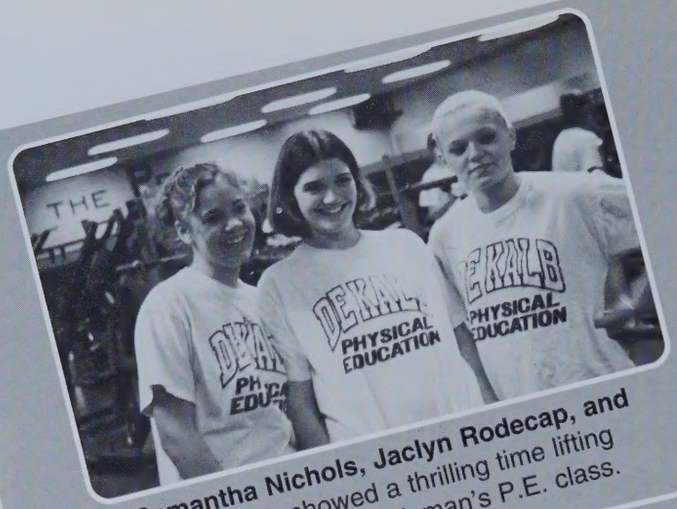
Working hard (or hardly working) in the guidance office as a student service worker, Katie Woebbeking helped out in the guidance office. she worked for the office her junior year, also. Katie helped Mrs. Hartman with many tasks such as alphabetizing, filing, and decorating for the holidays. Stephanie James worked for the Pathways to College coordinator. It looked like Mrs. Hartman could have used some help.

Jamie Lash found a few hours to spend with her grandfather, Mr. Grimm, at the DeKalb County Fair. The fair is an annual event that arrives late September and even gets students out of school for a day. Jamie and grandpa were waiting in line at a baked potato bar on the "industrial tent" side of the fair.

What a cute couple! Molly Potts and John Wiley congratulated each other on making National Honor Society. This year was Molly's second year and John was inducted in 2000.



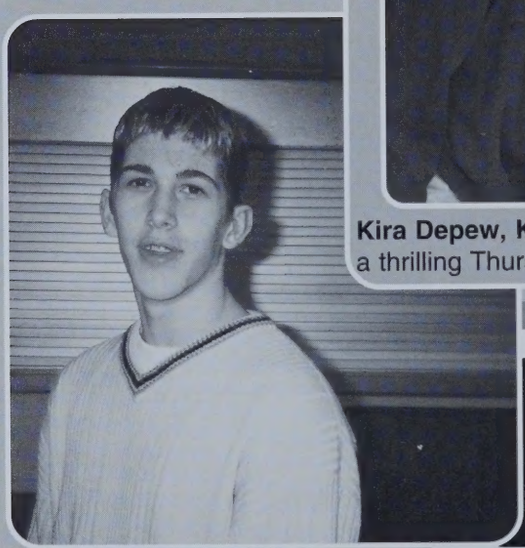
Thrilling Thursday



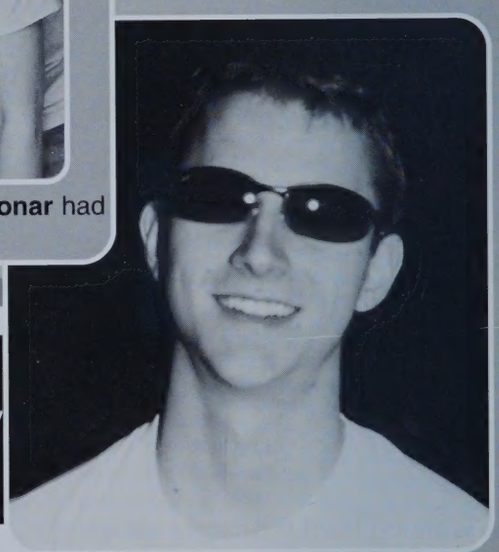
Samantha Nichols, Jaclyn Rodecap, and Jamie Lash showed a thrilling time lifting weights during Ms. Taleman's P.E. class.

Brianne Lees and Stacy Kasmier looked thrilled to be leaving for Florida soon.

Kira Depew, Krystal Crowl, Kamie Bolen, Heather Bonar had a thrilling Thursday at the Heimach Health Center.



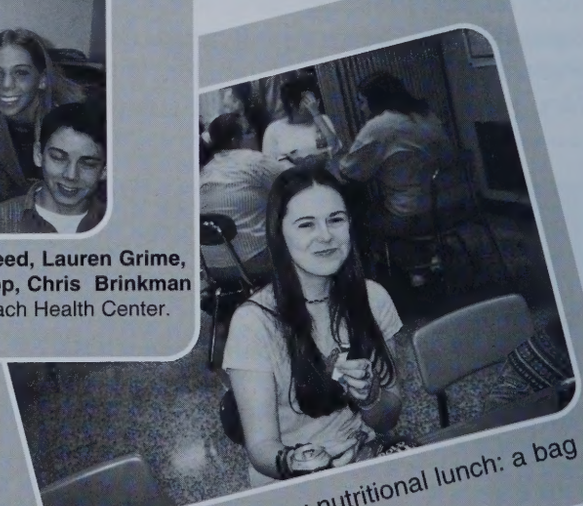
Jeremy Creager made every day a terrific day with his great attitude.



Denver McDaniel waited patiently to leave for Florida for the band trip in his OPDH shirt.

Shannon Davies, Janel Buchanan,Laura Freed, Lauren Grime, Elizabeth Grate, Erin Cherry, Adam Groscop, Chris Brinkman had a thoroughly terrific Thursday at the Heimach Health Center.

Troy Fiechter was a proud artist on thrilling Thursday.



Lauren Smith had a very nutritional lunch: a bag of pretzels, candy bar, and a pop.

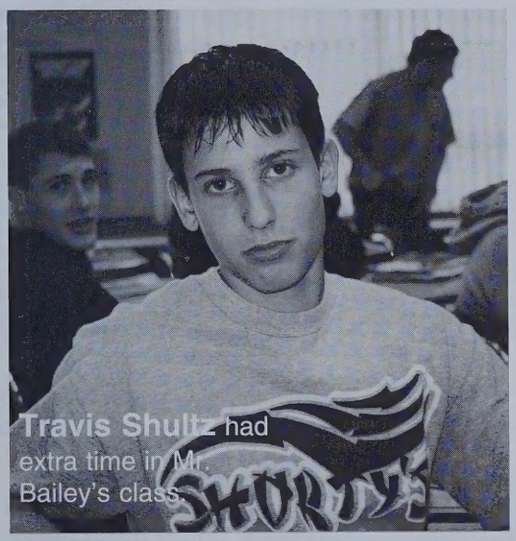
Brandi Dangler, a part of DeKalb's guard, waited to leave for Florida.

Thursday: Baron Pride: One in a Million



Travis Shultz had extra time in Mr. Bailey's class.

I am only one,
But still I am one.
I cannot do everything,
But I can do something;
And because I cannot do everything
I will not refuse to do something that I can do.
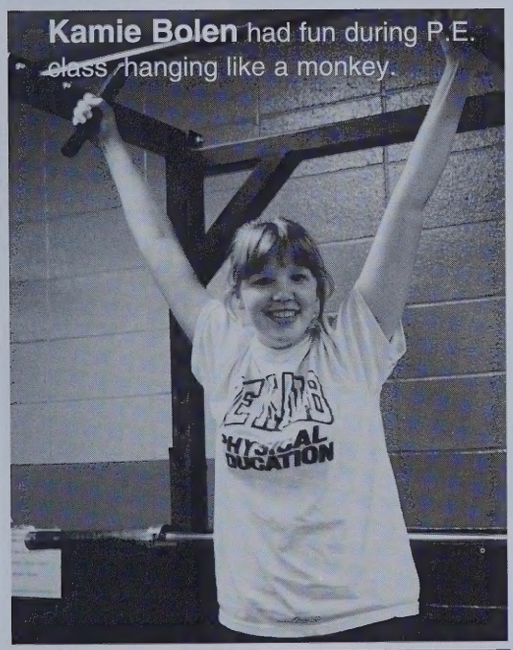
--Edward Everett Hale



Kamie Bolen had fun during P.E. class hanging like a monkey.

It's 7th period science and Brandy Stahl was ready for school to be out.

Shane Coler read Flowers for Algernon.

Stacy Kasmier waited in anticipation for the first NHS-sponsored homecoming parade. Among the many members of clubs involved in this event, she helped decorate the Spanish Club's car with colorful flowers. When not involved with school and marching band, she loves to stay at home.

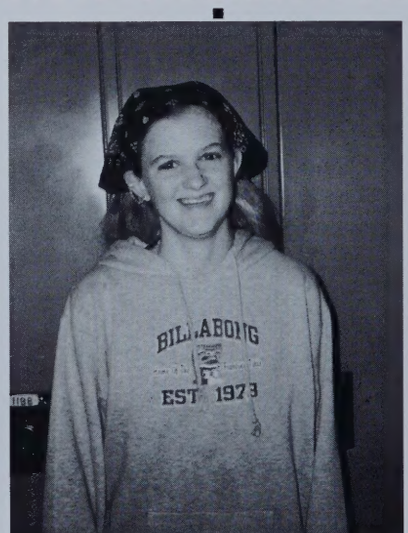
These boy choir cuties, Brandon Koenig, Justin Sassanella, Cory Miller, Alex Oberholzer, Michael Keesler, Jamie Peters, Josh Armstrong, and Adam Groscop, danced to "Space Cowboy" by *N Sync as the crowd watched in awe. The Sadie Hawkins dance got into swing after these guys performed.

Falling into... FRIDAYS

Natalie Dannenburg and Stacey Harp kept warm during the homecoming game, showing that school spirit and support for the football team.

Josh Cerri and Holly Berg were voted most likely to get married, divorced, married, divorced... for the Baron Brigade fun awards. Will they marry in 2010?

Fridays are fun. Agree? It's the one day when Barons can have a party, a late night curfew, watch sports, see friends, go to the movies, and enjoy. With anticipation, we wait for the 3:20 bell to ring.



Allison Root hung out at her locker during one of the five minute passing periods. Wait, was it a passing period? Where was everyone else, Allison?

JUST THE FACTS

Read on ... details revealed here

Katharine Franzman, a Shield staffer, enjoyed taking pictures for the 9 issues; she was the perfect person for the job because it requires a sense of humor. Taking journalism photos is a challenge.

"Friday, the best day of the week because of the parties.

-Matt Refner-

"I love Friday nights because it is the time I get to enjoy myself and be with my friends.

-Justin Tellez-

Samantha Crosley prepared herself for the beginning of the half-time show performed by the Baron Brigade. The show, entitled The Red Poppy, symbolized both Chinese and Russian themes. Samantha dressed in this outfit to portray the Chinese atmosphere. Sam loves to talk, but for once she was actually qiuet.

Molly Weiler and Ashley Bauman loved to dance. These girls had fun at the homecoming dance after the game. This year's theme was the "oldies." Strike a pose.

Megan Meadors showed incredible school spirit as a Baron football cheerleader. Megan was very excited because she was going to cheer in the homecoming game on September 15, 2000. The team won against Columbia City.

In Halloween garb, George Harvey and Denver McDaniel took a walk together before half time at a football game. The Baron Brigade dressed up for a Halloween show. All agreed that Denver and George made a very cute couple.

Kira Schowe and Mark Trovinger chilled out in the Commons. Their spirits, great personalities, and friendship showed at the Sadie Hawkins dance.

Carma Reese, Emily Graves, and Kianne Allen, very good friends, are all in Spanish Club, a great way to have fun with close friends.

Dawn Scribner and Kami Blickenstaff loved hanging out in the choir room during school. The choir room is a great place for all choir students to hang out during free time. Dawn is in girl choir and Kami is in the advanced concert choir.

Below: Angela Gerig and Jacquelyn Bercaw had a great time on the German field trip and loved eating at Cheddars afterwards.

Jessica Krehl, Brianne Lees, and Lauren Grime cooled down after gym class. These good friends are all in the same class and love playing ball outside during class. Was it a hard workout today, girls?

Autumn Bok chipped the ball towards the cup on hole two at Bridgewater Golf Club.

A chip led the way for Emily Blackwell's 49 at Bridgewater Golf Club that day.

BEST SEASON EVER

The girls golf team set a record for the most victories in a season! This year was also the first time the team has ever won a invitational; and they didn't just win one, they won two. The girls also made it to state for the second time in the school history; the first time was back in 1998. Vanessa Weimer and Jana VerHage were both a part of that team as well as a part of this year's team. The Barons finished 9th at state this year, the best in the school history!

1. Vanessa Weimer chipped out of the sand on hole number 3, finishing with a 45.
2. Cassie Thompson putt on hole 4 at Bridge Water, shooting a 48 that day.
3. Coach Nagel, Emily Blackwell, Vanessa Weimer, Jana VerHage, Autumn Bok, and Cassie Thompson waited to be seated at St. James after the girls placed 3rd at regionals.

Splendid Weekends

Tom Miller, Janelle Slone, and David Shuherk spent their Saturday at the show choir invitational enjoying the entertainment. >

<The girls basketball sectional helped encourage school artists to create a "survivor" sign based on the tv show, Survivor. The torches that remained lit were the teams that outwitted, outplayed, and outlasted the other teams Unfortunately, the Baron girls were voted out of the tribe.

George Harvey thought Josh Cerri's pizza looked delicious. The band celebrated after their first competition.

Mark Middleton and Adam Gerig watched the boys varsity basketball game. Their Baron spirit did not end after their fierce game with Snider in the gymnasium.

The boys choir relaxed after giving their performance for the show choir invitational.

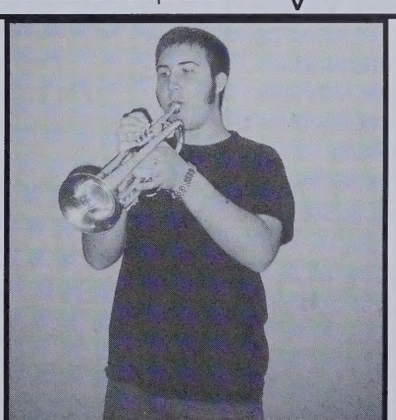
Joe Morgan practiced for the IBA trumpet sectionals in November. Joe was awarded BEST high school trumpet player in Indiana at March band competition.



Megan Hawkins, Carolyn Yoder, Taya Bartrom, April Hamilton, Cory Miller, Rex Gradeless, Eldon Byler, and Alex Oberholzer spent many weekends improving voice and dance steps for show choir competitions.

Cassandra Thompson decorated for Snowcoming dance, taping snowmen on the ceiling.

Brant Walker sold tickets at a home game for student council to win an autographed Baron basketball.

Okay kids on to the show right? ^Sure thing Judy! My lovely wife ladies and gents! *Thanks SO much Bob...but what do you want? ^Nothing...I swear! *Okay whatever! Our first story comes from four girls who got to know some men in uniform...but not in the way they expected! ^Lets welcome J.V., K.B., V.W., and M.C. to the stage. Take it away girls!

two thousand one

Okay. Well, the four of us had to go get ads for our great and wonderful SABER yearbook one Friday in Ashley. Well, J.V. and K.B. are the ad-supervisors, so they decided to go into TRIN to get these ads. V.W. and M.C. waited for them in the car. J.V. and K.B. were just walking around inside, looking for people, because there was a car outside, but nobody inside. Everything just HAPPENED to be unlocked though. Well, about five minutes after being inside, J.V. and K.B. came running out and told V.W. to go. Then we were sitting at a four way stop, kind of dumbfounded..when all of a sudden, two state police officers and an Ashley officer came flying around the corner. After we got through the four way stop, we turned around and went back to TRIN. We got out of the car and told one of the state police officers about what happened. The Ashley officer was already inside, so he came out. When he got to where we were, he pulled out his handcuffs and told us to get face down on the ground immediately. We all kinda gasped and grabbed each other's hands--but it turns out that he was just joking and let us go. It turns out that J.V. and K.B. set off the security system while in the process of finding someone to get ads.!!! That's a day we'll never forget!

2. Sarah Brechbill placed a winner just over the net.
3. Up one to zip, Christina Grogg returned a Lake-land serve.

*Whoa! Talk about having a crazy day! ^Sorry about that girls! Now on to our next story!

One time when I was training a new kid at work, I was trying to look really good and like I knew what I was doing. Well, I ended up dropping my rake and instead of bending down to pick it up, I just stomped on the prongs. I wasn't paying attention when I did it, so when the handle came up, it hit me in the head REALLY hard! So much for first impressions!

^Ouch, that has to hurt, eh Judy?? * No kiddin' Bob! Okay folks, two down and one to go until we find out who wins this year's Horror Competition!

One Friday night, we were looking for hotties in Garrett when we saw two coming out of the grocery store! We jumped in the car and followed them to the gas station. After about three minutes of deep contemplation, we jumped out of the car and headed over to talk to them. Come to find out they were on their way to the East Noble football game. Needless to say, they had b.o., bad breath, and were TOTAL hicks! What a turn off!

Anna Pfister
She was 1st team NHC and secured school record for career blocks at 539.

Liz Corey and Maria Damstra both were prepared to block the shot a Northrop player was attempting to make. The Barons beat Northrop when they played them at Northside, 16-14 and 15-13.

Jackie Recker bends down to ground level to hit the volleyball back into the air. Anna Pfister is right behind her waiting to help recover the serve. The Barons won against Garrett 15-10 and 15-9.

BEST SEASON SINCE 1990

"The 5 seniors and the 5 underclassman blended together to form a sold unit that was tough to beat. These players cared about one another, both on and off the court. Their collective mental strengths were tough to crack and helped them be successful in many close games and matches."
-Coach Vick

1.Christina Grogg diving for the ball while Jamie Chaffee, who had a 99% serving average, waited to see what will happen during the Northrop game.
2. Anna Pfister, who had a career record of 539 blocks, had a great set during the Northrop game.
3. Liz Corey, who had a record career record of 696 digs, set the ball while Deb Nolan and Jackie Recker set up to make an agressive play.

Anna Pfister concentrated on winning the basketball games on a weekend in January.

Team get-togethers are important for team solidarity. The cross country team hung out for dinner one weekend.

Kathy Selden (Abbie Mast) considered whether to forgive Don in the final scene.

Eldon Byler and Megan Hawkins were "laughing at clouds...so dark up above!" Eldon played a diction coach Megan, exotic actress Olga Moya.

Lina Lamont (Taya Bartrom) defended herself against Roxy (Annette Knox), R.F. Simpson (Jamie Peters) and Rosco Dexter (Josh Seltenright), who think she's getting a big head.

^ "Are you okay?!" Eldon Byler asked anxiously, after John Jackson leaned a little too far into the pit and fell in, headfirst!

Absent from the movie version starring Gene Kelly and Debbie Reynolds, DeKalb's show included a final rendition of "Singing In The Rain," including singing and dancing by the entire cast. Above are stars Kathy Selden (Abbie Mast) and Don Lockwood (Cory Miller).

Jared Hoff (above) and Nick Martz (below) provided spotlight...starlight...and *moon*light, plus mood music by Dave Matthews!

^ Justin Sassanella played Cosmo Brown, Don's trusty sidekick, and put the audience in stitches with the song, "Make 'Em Laugh!"

Silent film stars Don Lockwood (C. Miller) and Lina Lamont (T. Bartrom) took a bow at the premiere of their first talking picture, "The Dancing Cavalier."

Making a Splash With...

"Singing in the Rain"

On May 4, 5, and 6 of 2001, DeKalb High School presented the classic show Singing in the Rain. The musical tells the story of two silent film stars whose lives will be forever changed by the advent of the "talkies"--talking pictures. The show presented the technical challenge of producing rain onstage, which was eventually accomplished (with great success) by Kent Johnson, who created a "rainmaker" of PVC pipe. When it was Cory Miller's turn to imitate Gene Kelly during the famed title song, it really rained on the DeKalb stage, and the Barons once again created musical memories.

GOOD IDEAS FOR FUTURE SENIORS...

GOOD IDEA #1: Take a cue from Carly Galligher, Annette Knox, and Carolyn Yoder, and always "smile pretty!" >

GOOD IDEA #2: We may not know what Jake Voelkel was doing, but as usual, he looked cool doing it. v

GOOD IDEA #3: Like Cassie Shuherk and Andrea Cantwell, take advantage of Mrs. Ziebell's comfy couch. ^

BAD IDEAS

WE LOVED THESE SENIORS, BUT THEY DEFINITELY TAUGHT US SOME LESSONS ON WHAT NOT TO DO AT D.H.S...

Patrick Brannon

BAD IDEA #1: Dedra Ling succumbed to her inner "devil-child"... with a little encouragement from Chloe Savage. >

Kristi Cain

Asolina Braun
FRENCH CLUB, VOLLEYBALL 12

BAD IDEA #2: Chris Squires expressed his patriotism and creativity using peas, applesause, and butter as his media; no doubt the lunch ladies were pleased. v

Megan Cassady

BAD IDEA #3: Star wrestler Justin Scheumann ordered a healthy salad on the Spanish field trip...and proceeded to finish off everyone else's meals. Thanks for showing us how NOT to keep weight off.

DOWN THE HATCH

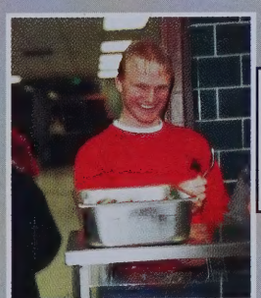
Smile! It's time for LUNCH

Teca Rodecap, Michelle Roy, and Heather Allen displayed their excitement during lunch on their last days of school.

Alicia Gustafsson showed her skills in the pie-eating contest held during home-coming week; she didn't eat very much of her pie.

Taylor Treesh enjoyed his food he ordered on the Spanish field trip to Carlos O' Kelly's. His food arrived late, so when he got it, he was very grateful.

Natalie Dannenberg and Michael Kessler showed how enthused they were to eat the school's food.



Tom Miller went through the lunch line knowing he was about to eat healthy. Hey, you know that food comes from those hard working farmers.

Tim Mercer ...just chillin' with his friends at lunch eating those buffalo wings and fries.

What do you want people to remember about you?

I want people to remember my expressive clothing, my love for marching band, and my fixation with Aerosmith. Most of all, I want people to remember how I did what I wanted no matter what others thought of me.

change your world...

A senior Saber staffer was browsing through her fifth grade yearbook, when she found a feature in which the fifth-graders were asked what they would do if they controlled the world for one day. It made us all wonder, "If we asked them the same question today, how

Baron Talent

These Barons let their true colors show...

Deadhead Wannabe Alicia Gustafsson brightened the hallways with tie-dyed pajama pants during Snowcoming Week.

Future Clowns of America Lyndsey Johnson and Dustin Deter were "livin' la vida loca" at the Crestview Show Choir Contest.

Sir Mix-a-lot Wannabes Justin Sassanella and Cory Miller sang at the Snowcoming Karaoke contest. (Their performace was later controversially disqualified.)

^ Monet Wannabe Angie Mapes showed off the Impressionism painting, displayed in the Fort Wayne Museum of Art, that won her a Gold Key in the 2001 Scholastic Art Awards.

^ Gene Kelly Wannabe Nick Martz liked to swing in the rhythm of Classic Connection; here he danced at the DeKalb Invitational.

I think people will remember how expressive I am and my sense of style! I have always been laid back and do not put too much effort into how I look at school. All I really want are friends to remember that I will always remember them.

I would never trade my friendships with Teca Rodecap and Heather Allen. They have been there through good times and bad and are great friends. Teca always keeps me in line while Heather is there to push me back out of line, but it is a good balance.

People will remember me for being a nice guy who is very personable, my stylish dress, and friendly advice. Many will look back and say that I was a great performer and a friend to all. Hopefully I will be remembered as an all-around nice guy.

An event I will remember was winning the national showchoir competition in Orlando, Florida, my junior year. It was a lot of fun, and we were able to compete, win, and relax with friends. That was the best year the showchoir has ever had and a great spring break.

People will remember me as quiet, friendly, and independent until they get to know me. I am really outgoing, wild, crazy, and I love to have fun. I do not really let things bother me and I am pretty easy-going for the most part. I would say that the people I am not really good friends with would think I am shy, but my true friends who know the real me know that's not true!

I will never forget the time my best friend Sarah Linstromberg made Mr. Fleming mad during math class my junior year. He sent Sarah to the office; she walked out and slammed the door. All of the sudden, the clock fell off the wall. At first everyone was really quiet, then we all started to laid. It was hilarious!

The FUTURE

in the near future

We all know that seniors face many exciting and scary decisions. Whether it be college or working a full-time job, these are decisions to make. What are you planning to do after graduation?

Debbie Lomas

After I graduate, I plan to work full-time to save money. Then I am going to attend IPFW or International Business College and major in business management. While at DeKalb, I learned many things but one thing I will take with me forever is that I have learned to value my friends. I also have learned who my real friends were. I learned the value of money and how I should have saved some.

Brandon Duhammel

After I graduate, I am going to attend Indiana Purdue University of Fort Wayne. I plan on majoring in business management. I will probably work at Tower Automotive over the summer in order to save some money that I should have done while in school. If I could go back to any year during my four years at DeKalb it would be my freshmen and sophomore years because I would work a lot harder.

Ashley Gaff

After graduation, I plan on going to IPFW to study to be a surgical technician. I am going to move out of my house and live in my own apartment in Fort Wayne. After I am finished with college, I am going to move to Florida and live by my father. While in school, I learned that everyone is going to have his/her own opinions and not to listen to them and not to give up on anything. If I want it, I can achieve it.

CONTEXT CLUES...

We're not sure how these seniors will employ their talents in the future, but we're not above taking an educated guess!

Tom Miller and David Brand may have a career in ranching, judging by their cowboy garb. (Actually, they were dressed up for F.F.A. Week!)

Something tells us Wendy Schmidt could sell her beautiful oil paintings, like this one she completed during Mrs. Buch's Painting IV class.

If Dan Schiffli's skill at this machine was any idication, Dan has a great future ahead of him. Dan participated in the I.C.E. program during his senior year, working for Cooper Standard Products.

Zech Oberlin looked at home behind the wheel during the car show. Judging from his participation in the building trades class, we deduced that he has a future ahead of him in a hands-on career.

Leaning TOWARD a Different CHORD

Jamie Peters (L) and George Harvey both performed at the Fall Variety Show but with very different styles. Jamie performed Neil Young's "Keep on Rockin' in the Free World" and remarked, "Being able to get up in front of people and play my guitar while singing...is one of the greatest experiences ever."

Parting Shots... The Many Faces of 2001

Kyle Roark's tough defense was a key player in the Baron's 20-0 regular season.

Sarah Provines graced the stage and the marching field with her flute--and her sweet personality.

Amanda Ort enjoyed participating in the choirs during high school and taking advantage of her seniority in the lunch line.

Scott Pankop took part in football, vocational classes and making the girls swoon.

Bethany Dilley

Sophomores begin to plan for the future: a teacher and hunting guide.

Bethany Dilley

Bethany plans to enter a 4-year college to study elementary educacation because of the positive influence of Mrs. Young at Ashley Elementary School. Bethany liked how Mrs. Young made learning fun with hands-on projects.

Jon Moughler

A hunting enthusiast, Jon wants to be a professional hunt guide out West. He has been hunting since 2nd grade, bow, muzzle-loader, or full season. His favorite kill is a tanned 6′ coyote which stands in his bedroom. Jon would love to hunt moose next.

Sophomores begin to plan for the future: a music and elementary teacher.

Jennette Kobiela

Jenny plans to attend a 4-year college to become a band director. Also, she has aspirations to become a jazz musician. She bases her decision on her band directors: Mr. Campbell, Mr. Murdock, and Mr. Fisher. They inspired her to become a musician, to teach music, and to love to perform.

Tonya Aeschliman

Tonya wants to attend Ball State University and study elementary education. She was inspired by her 5th grade teacher at McKinney-Harrison, Mrs. Beaty. She made learning fun and interacted with the students.

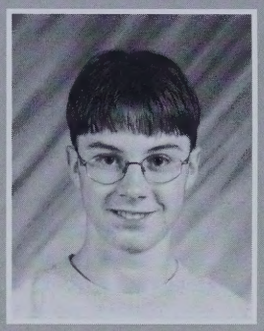
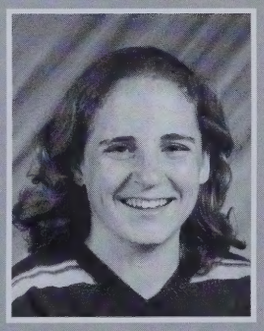
Sophomores begin to plan for the future: a college graduate and a dentist.



Brendon Wilson

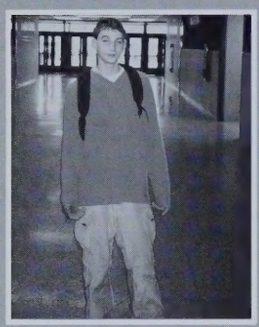
Brendon wants to attend a 4-year college and be successful at whatever he chooses to do.



Casey Wallace

Casey want to attend a 4-year college and major in denistry. She enjoys visiting her dentist, Dr. Scheumann. She enjoys the health professions.

sophomores: odd, goofy, humorous, wonderful, you name it_____



"The sophomore class is a lot of fun, and I made new friends.
Being a sophomore is a little bit harder than what I had expected. The classes are harder. I enjoyed woods and English.
-Jon Moughler"

Sophomores need to rest each day as they deal with the rigors of their second year as Barons, and Jeremy Queen was no exception.

Class of 2003

WHO is the tallest? Buddies Jason Wendel and Jake Dewitt continued to do sophomore "shenanigans" in Miss Delagrange's classroom.

Tyson Walter "tuned" into English with Cassandra Nichols in Mrs. Ziebell's sophomore English class. Students were involved in a group project that must have involved the CD player.

Cari Betz just wanted all sophomores, especially Justin Carroll and Sarah Huth, to get along.

Sophomores Chasity Barger, Jamie Lash, and Dana Gerbers looked forward to lunchtime festivities with friends and maybe some of those d-e-l-i-c-i-o-u-s Otis Spunkmeyer cookies or snowcones or Lifesaver suckers--fundraiser items.

THANKS!!!

To Angie Mapes and Vanessa Weimer:

You have had a lot of fun and frustration in the last three years but produced the 1999, 2000, and 2001 Sabers-- 3 very difficult, innovative, and fun yearbooks. I will miss you both very much. Thank you for the hard work, perseverence, and dedication during your busy high school lives as yearbook staff members and editors. You are special. Ms. Tubergen
